KEEP CALM AND FIND A FARM

Support Our Local Farms and Markets

Below is a list of Orange County Farms and Markets to shop at for groceries and produce during this unusual time of social distance. We encourage you to support your local Farms and Markets to the extent which you are able. Supporting them now ensures that they are still around later when life returns to normal and we want to return to our favorite establishments.

This list is continuously updated. Please visit our website for up-to-date information.
